

Heart Education Meetings

RSVP to join us and Dr. Daniel R. Martin speaking on:

"Saving Lives in the ER—How Doctors Think"

With an emphasis on the triage (assessment of urgency) of patients coming into the ER with chest pain and the immediate life-saving decisions needed.

Bring your questions.

You will also meet some inspirational people with serious heart issues and hear some uplifting stories!

Thursday, February 13, 2020

6:00 pm - 8:00 pm in the Ross Heart Hospital Auditorium,
OSU Wexner Medical Center, 452 West 10th Avenue, Columbus, OH 43210
(Meal provided and a parking pass for the attached Safe Auto garage)

Dr. Daniel R. Martin is a Professor of Emergency Medicine and Internal Medicine for The Ohio State University College of Medicine. He is also the Program Director of the Emergency Medicine Internal Medicine Residency Program and the Vice Chair of Education for the Department of Emergency Medicine. Dr. Martin received his medical degree from the Indiana University School of Medicine. After that, he completed his Internal Medicine residency at University of Iowa Hospitals and Clinics and then completed an Emergency Medicine residency at the Medical College of Wisconsin serving as Chief Resident during his final year.

In recent years, his clinical interests have included the treatment of infectious diseases in the emergency department, emergency medicine education, cognitive errors and patient satisfaction. Through his research, he focuses on the ED treatment of infections, such as pneumonia and respiratory infections as well as a variety of medical education research topics.

Healing Hearts members seek to inspire, comfort and support heart patients and their families and people at risk for heart disease and diabetes. Since March 2011, our central Ohio Chapter group has grown to over 300 members and made over 10,000 heart patient visits at the Ross and University Hospital East. We share heart success stories, strive to stay healthy long-term, and host educational meetings each month!
